
Head of Classification – Personal Specification

- A qualified International Classifier with recent, relevant and extensive classification experience (this can come from sports other than boccia)
- An understanding of the importance of classification within boccia
- Experience of working on sports committees
- The ability to lead a team, both in person and remotely
- Experience of people development (e.g. tutor, coach, mentor)
- Calm under pressure and have the confidence to lead/have difficult conversations
- An understanding of the principles for conducting and applying research
- Good administrative skills and attention to detail
- Fluent communication skills in written and spoken English
- Able to commit the time required to the role. This is in the region of 25-30 days per year and will involve travelling from time to time.